

ÜLEMISTE CITY RADAR

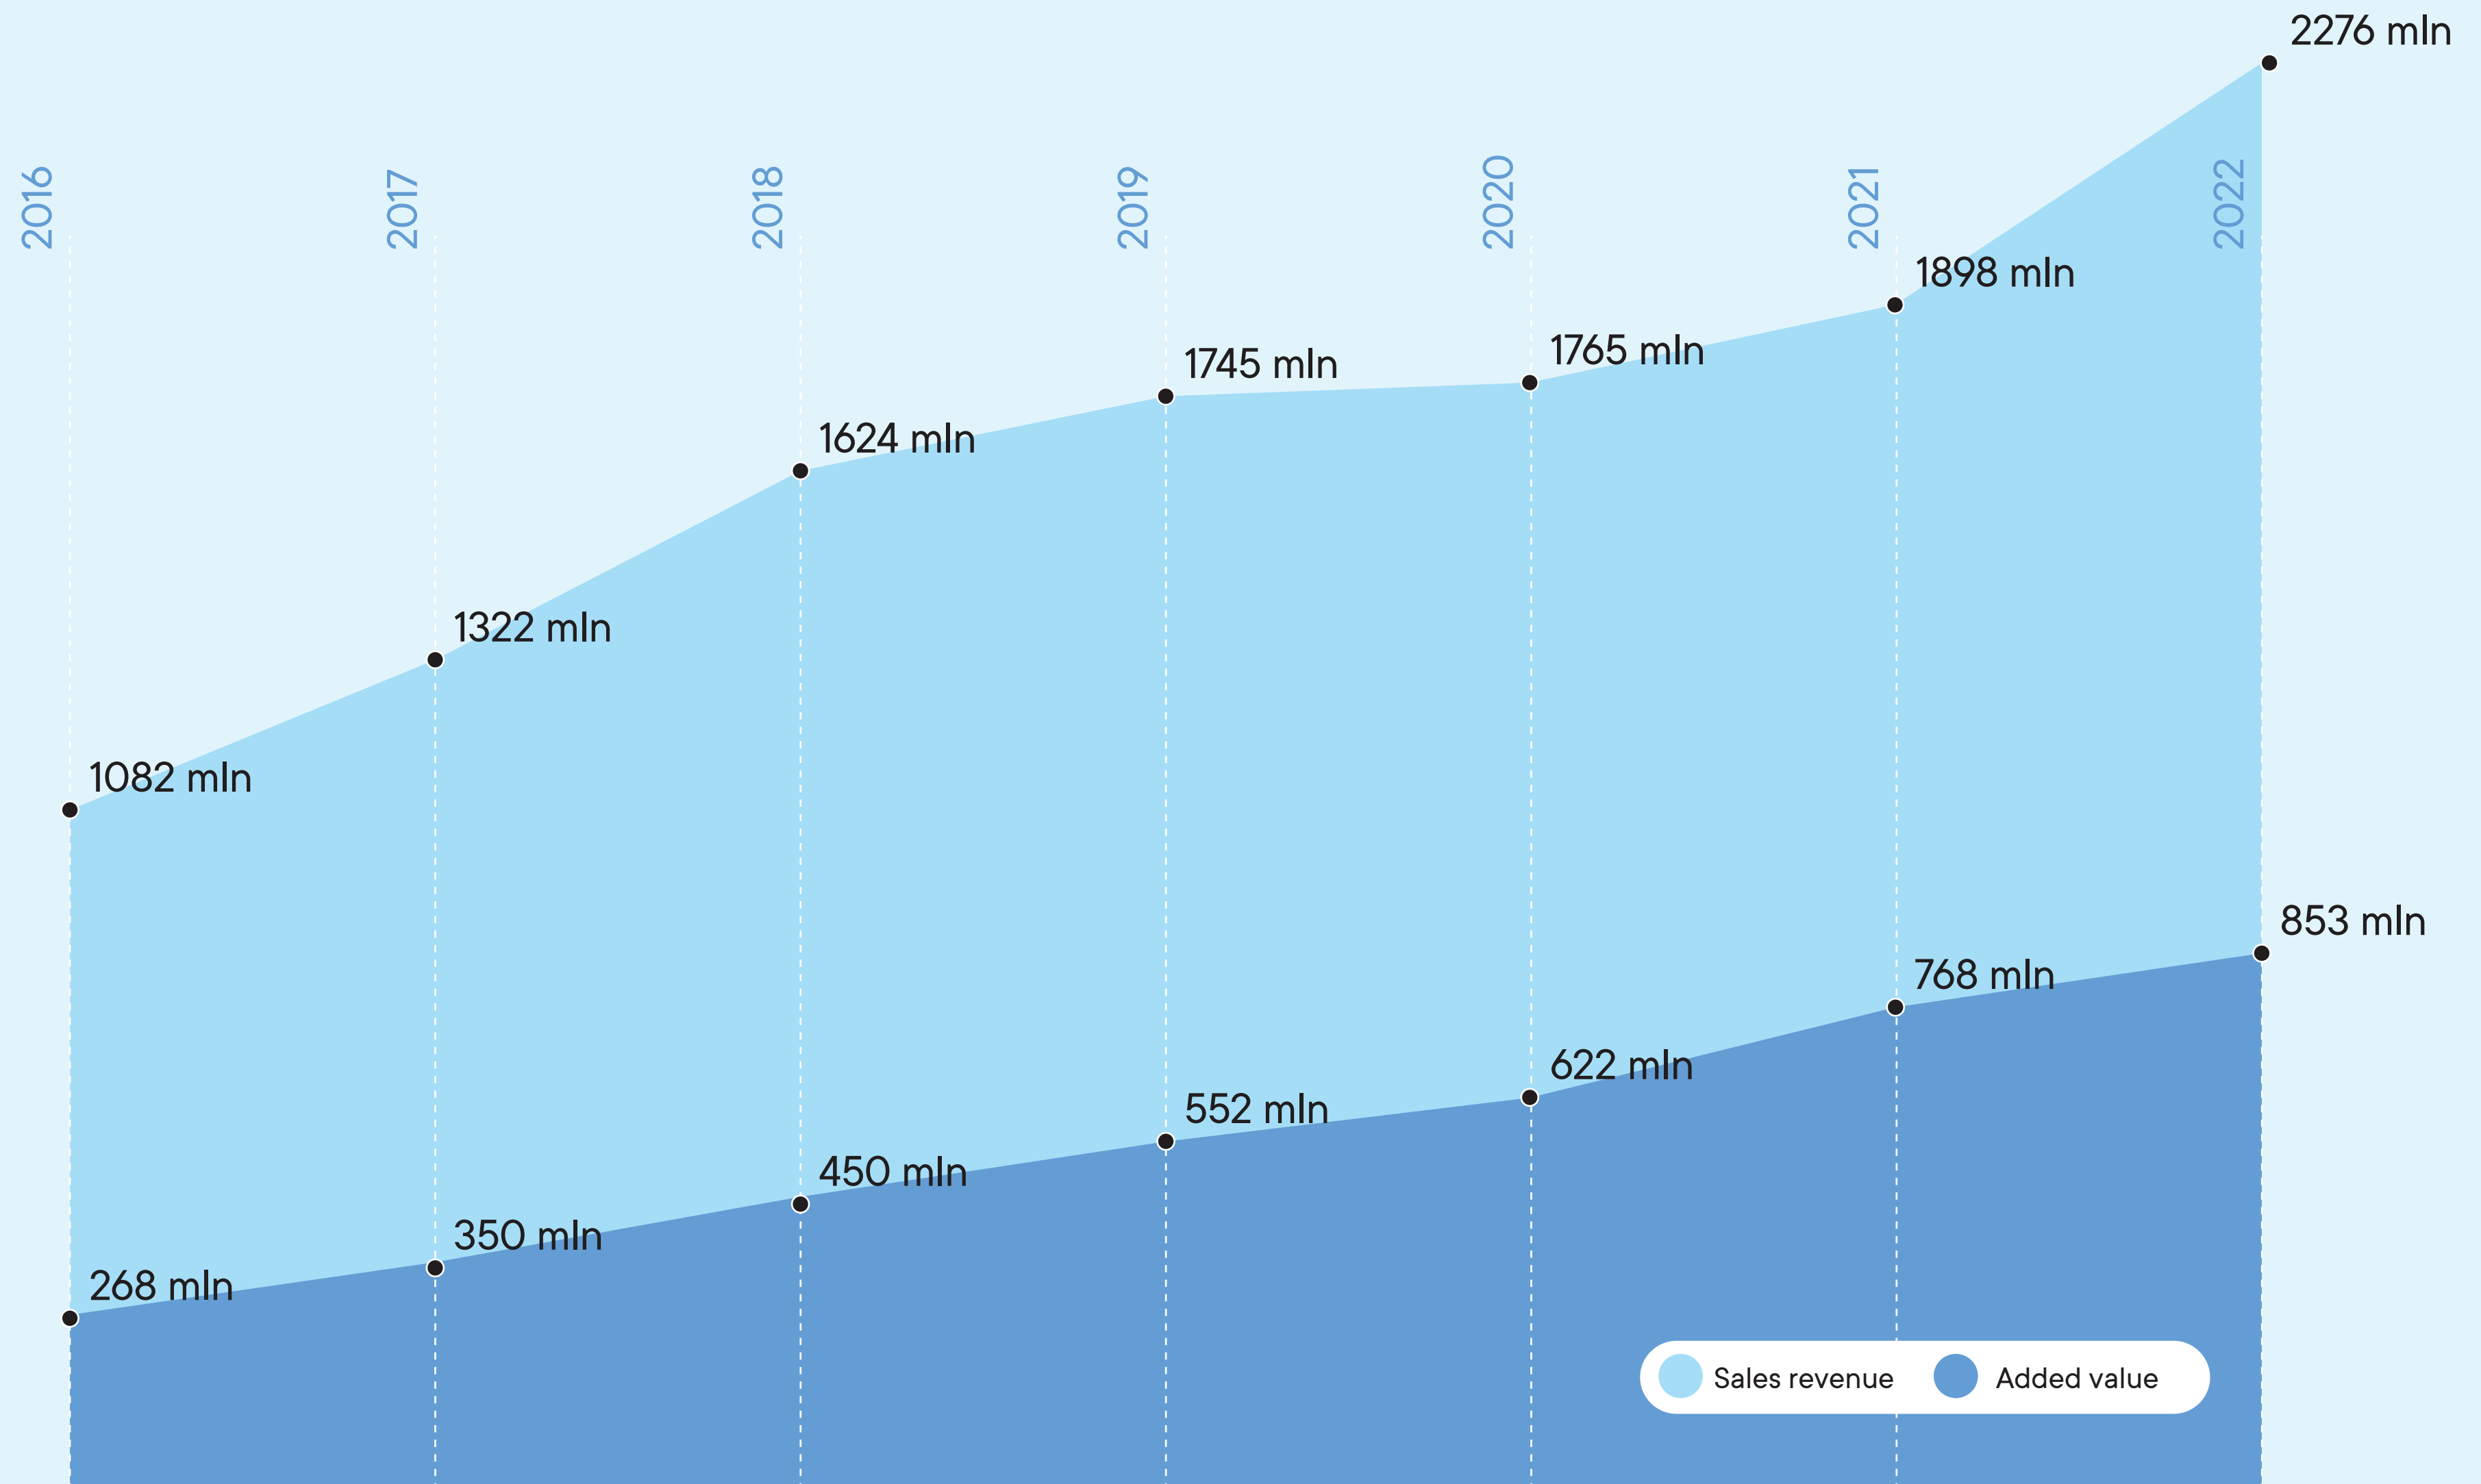

ECONOMY

There are nearly 500 companies with more than 15 000 employees in Ülemiste City. The added value produced by our companies nearly quadrupled during 2015–2022. Today, Ülemiste City has grown into the third economic city in Estonia, following Tallinn and Tartu.

The data is taken from e-Business Register, Statistics Estonia, and Estonian Tax and Customs Board.

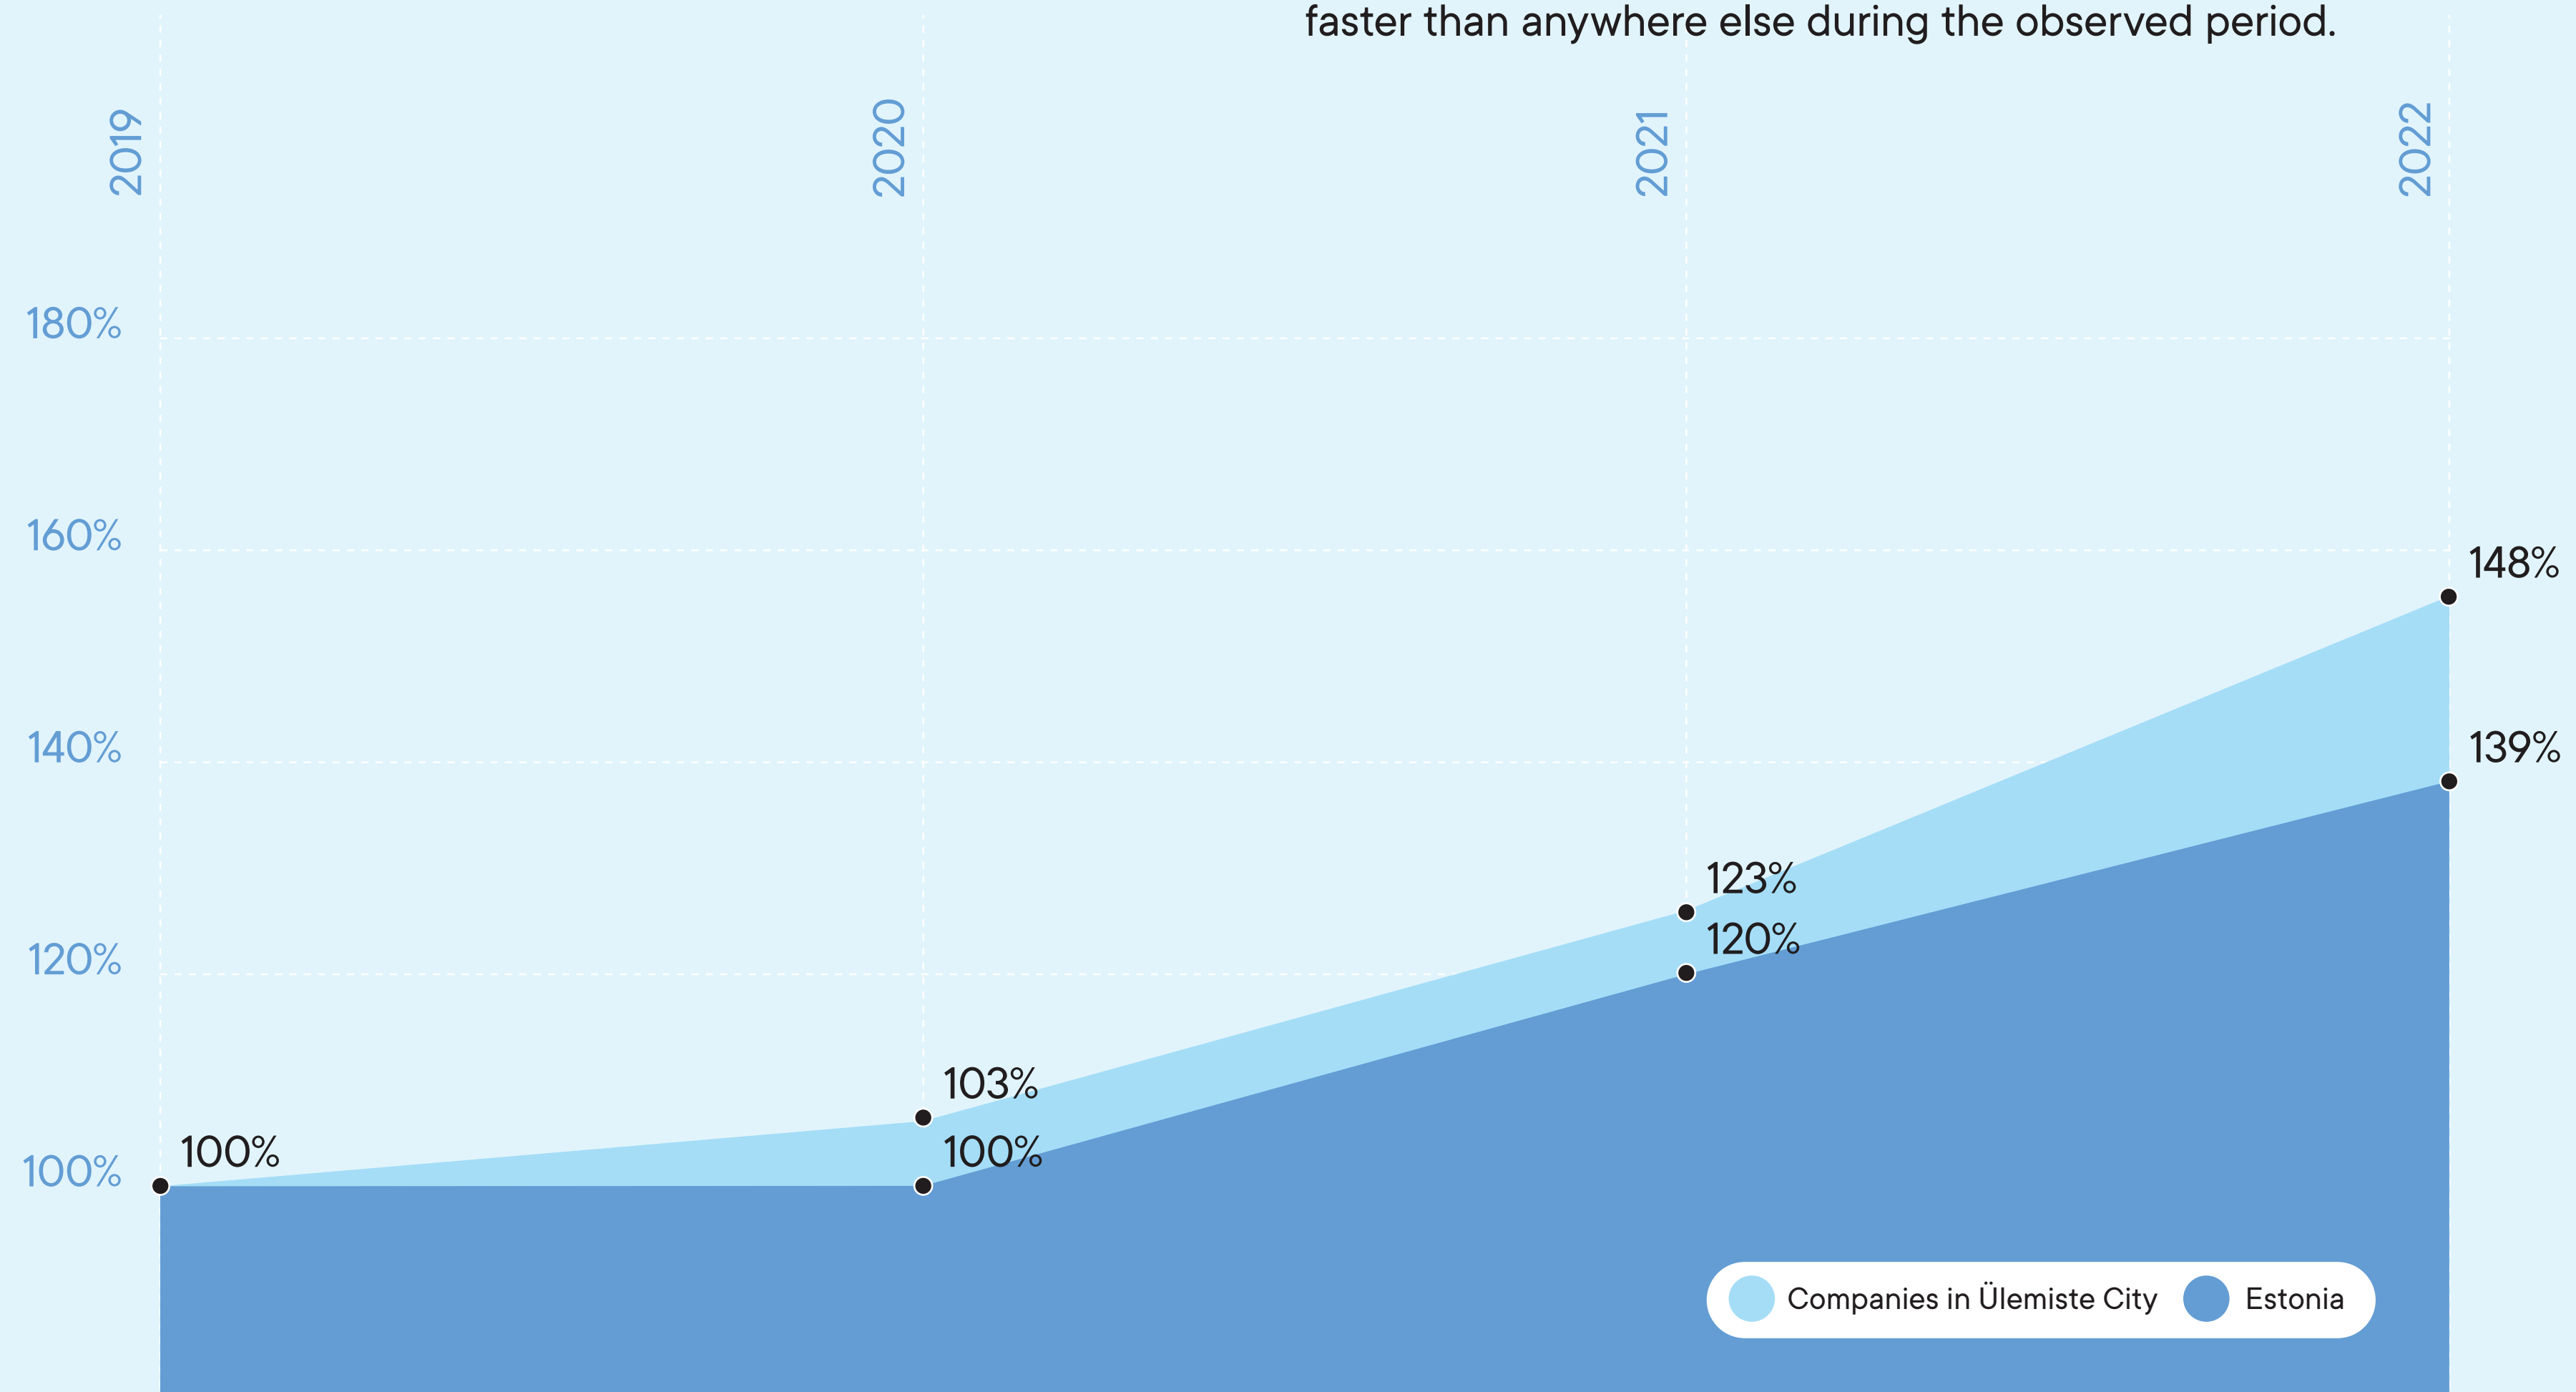

Economic Performance ⁱ

The data is taken from E-Business Register, Statistics Estonia, and Estonian Tax and Customs Board.

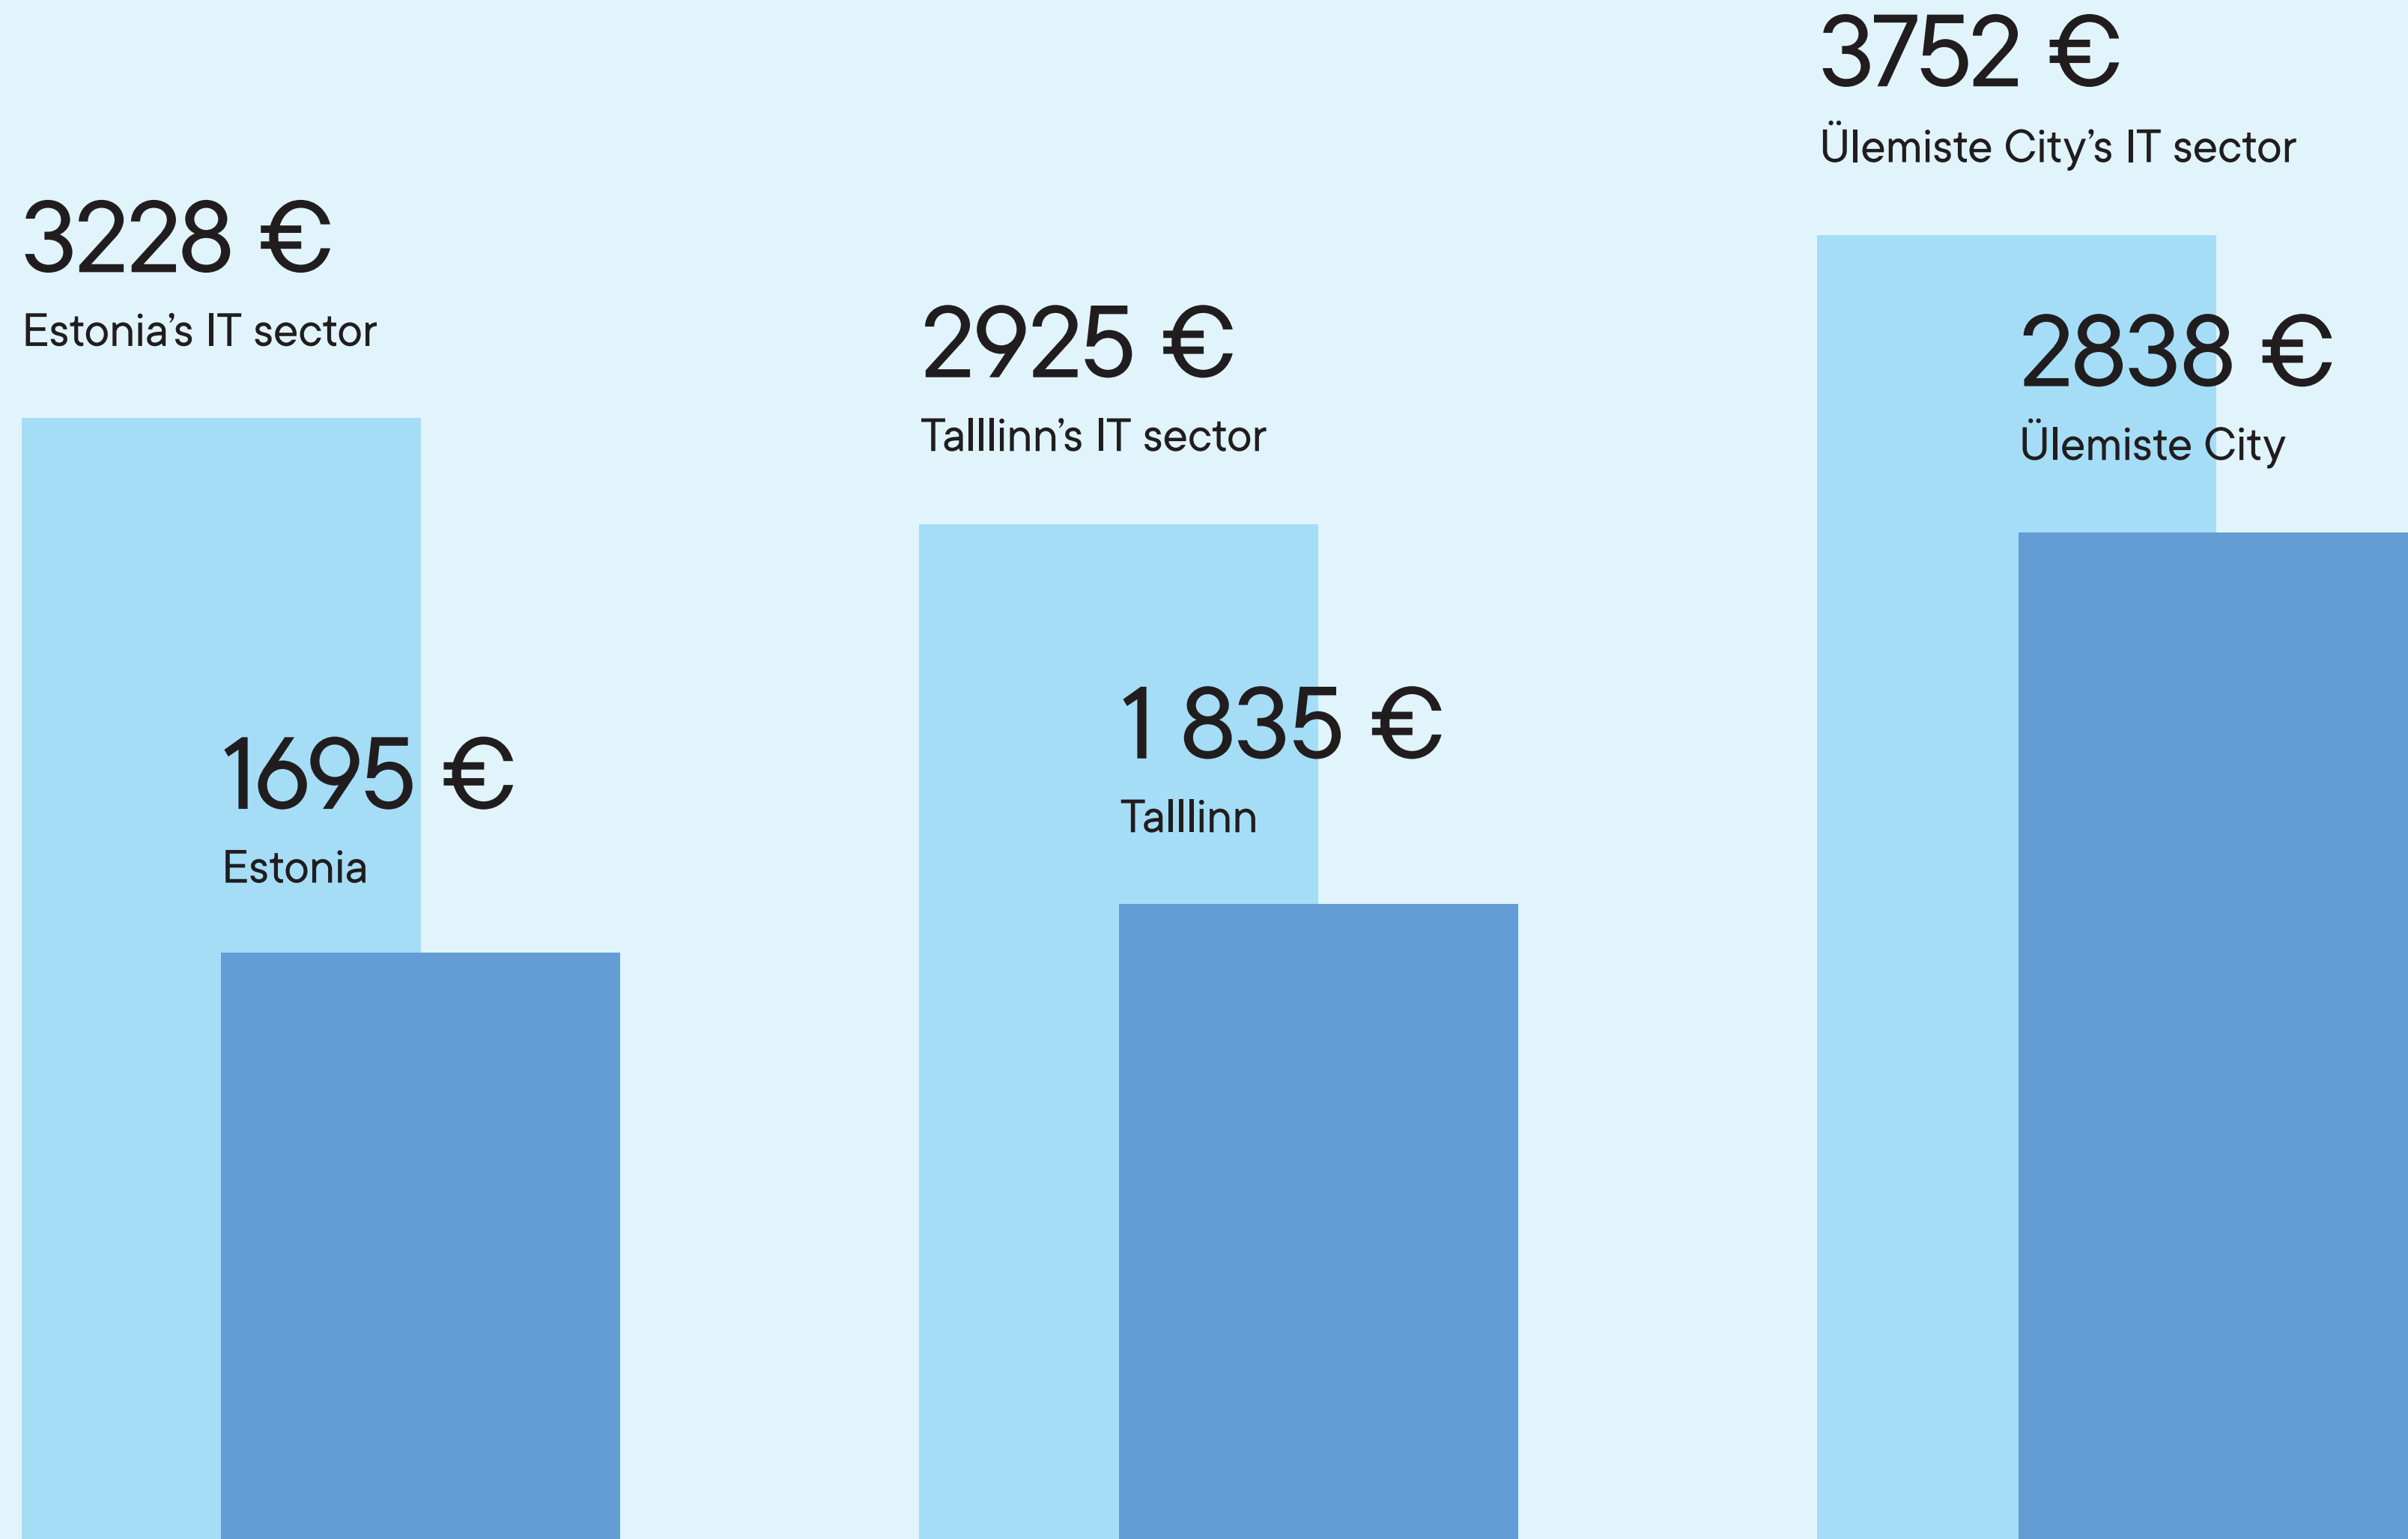

Ülemiste City as a Growth Environment

213 out of all the companies in Ülemiste City have been here since 2019. The increase of added value index of companies (2019=100%), when compared to the added value index of all Estonian companies, shows that the added value produced by the companies on campus has increased substantially faster than anywhere else during the observed period.

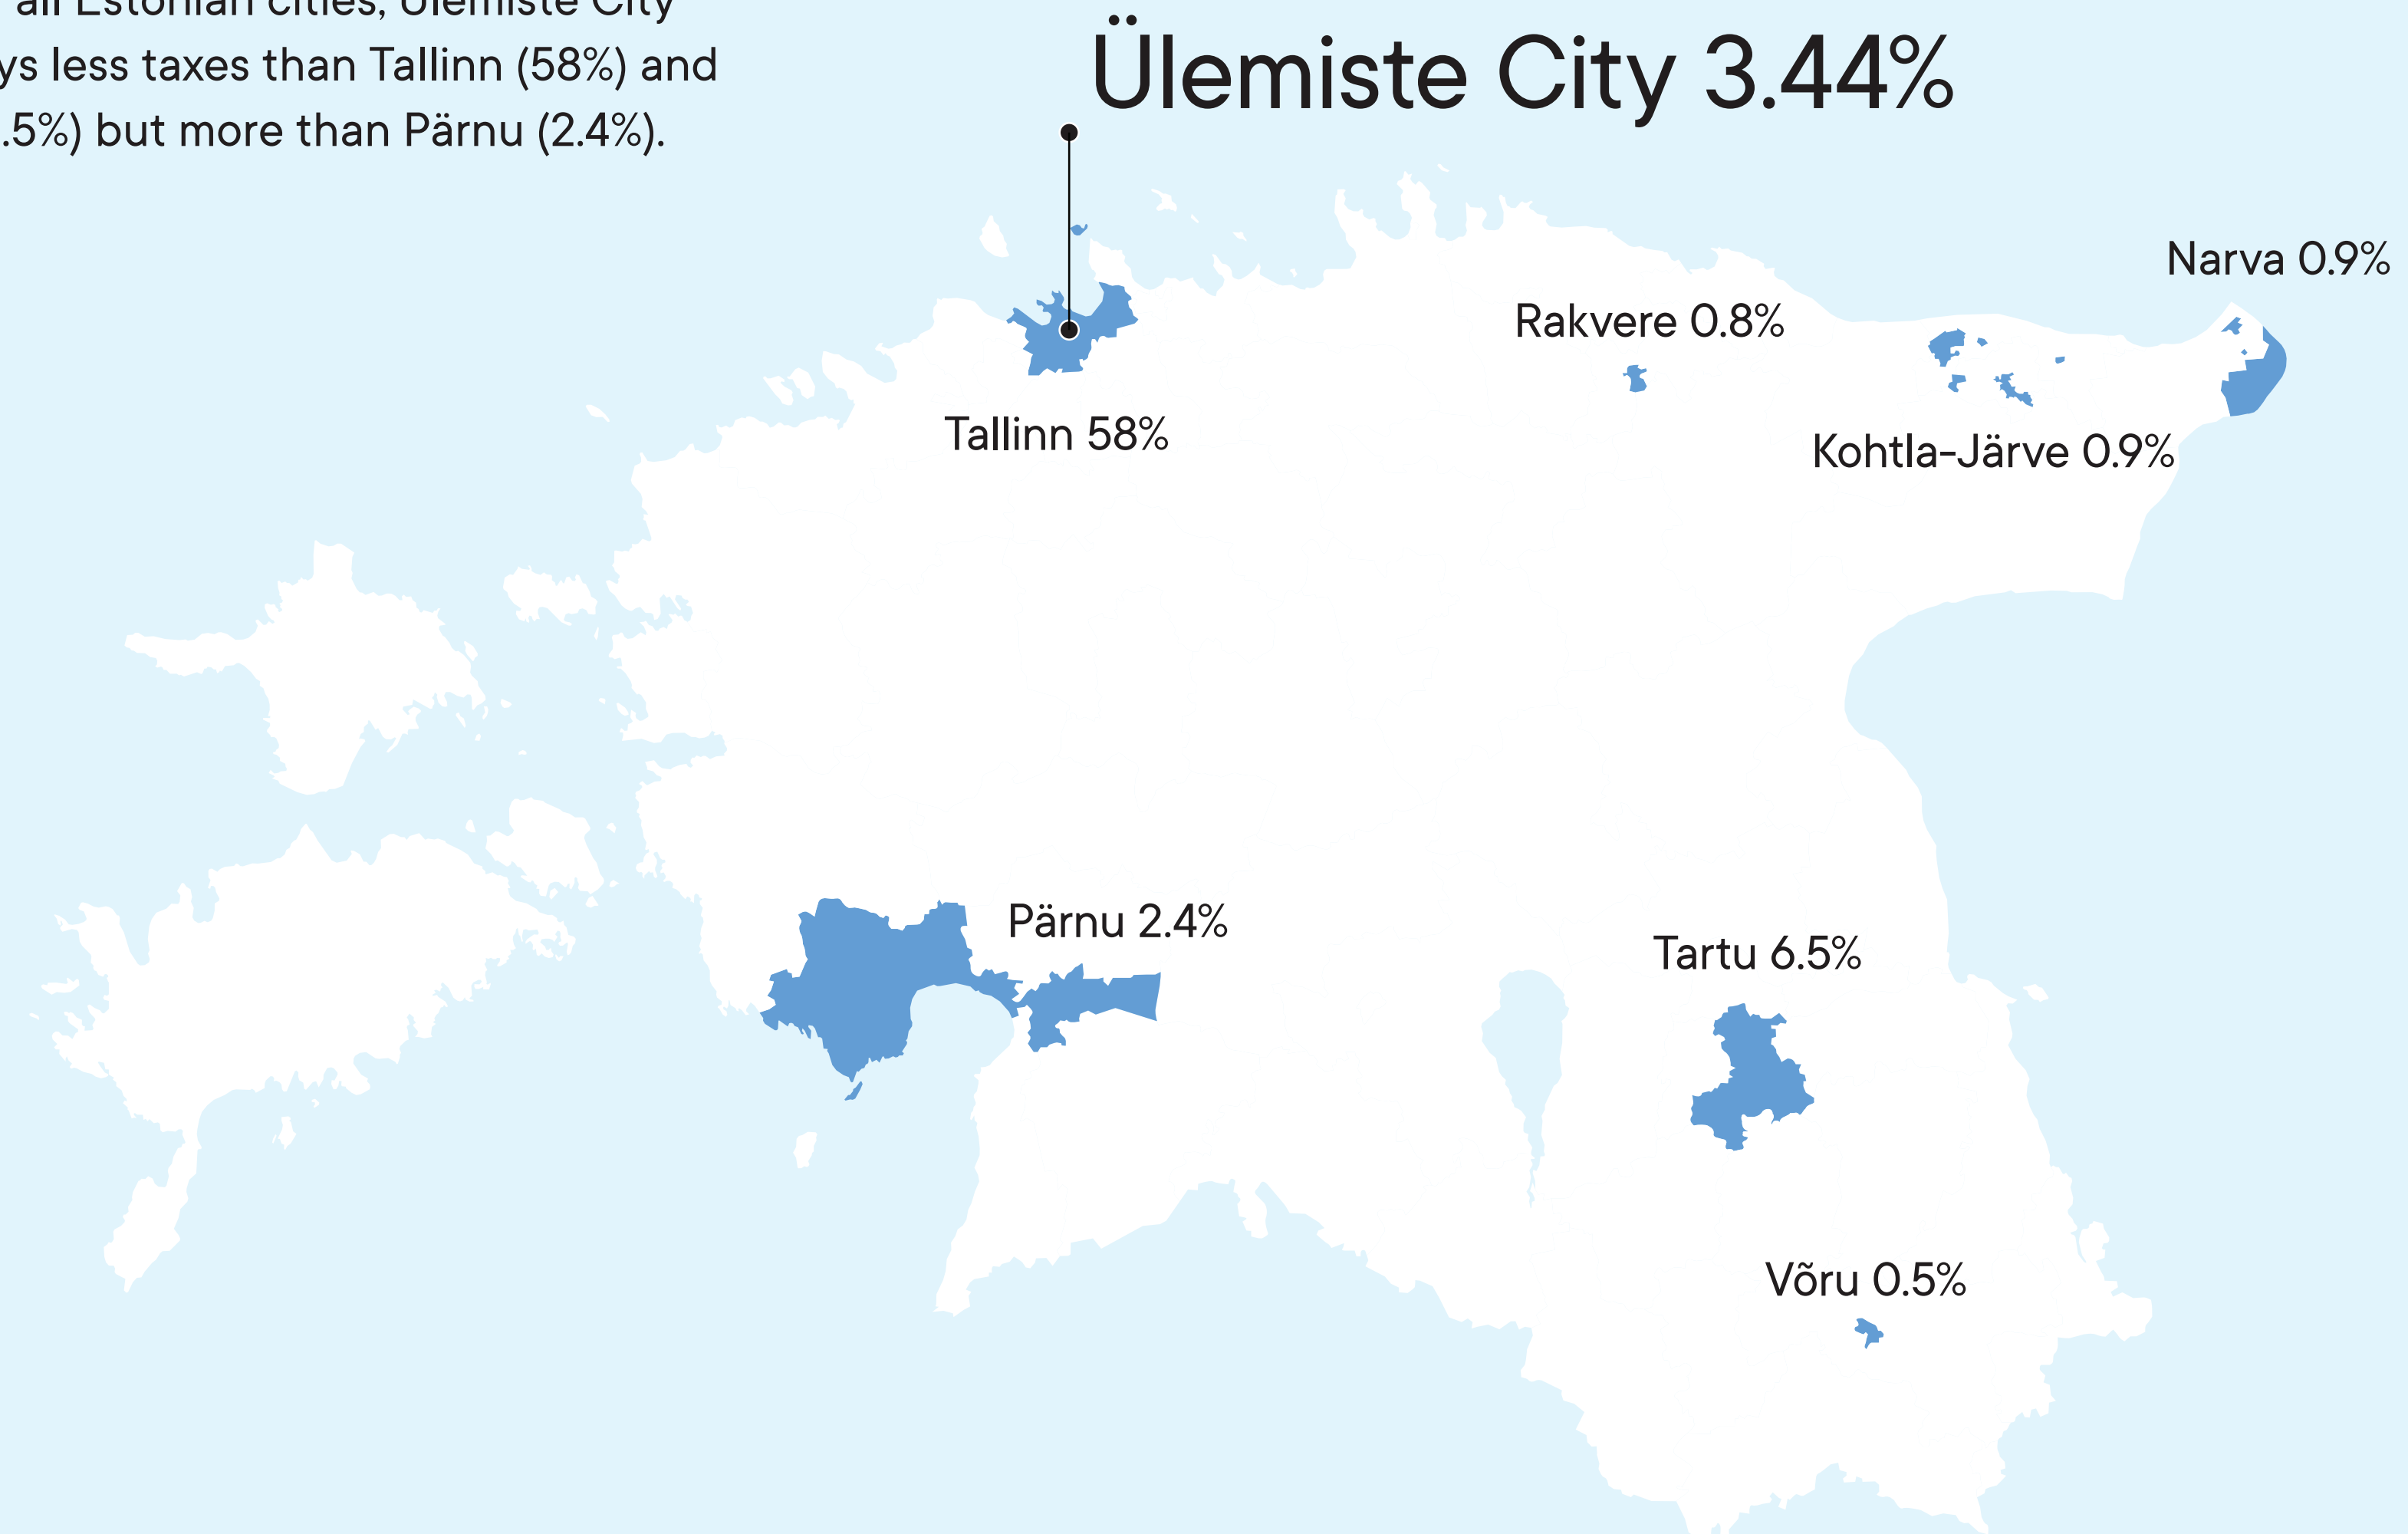

Average Gross Wage

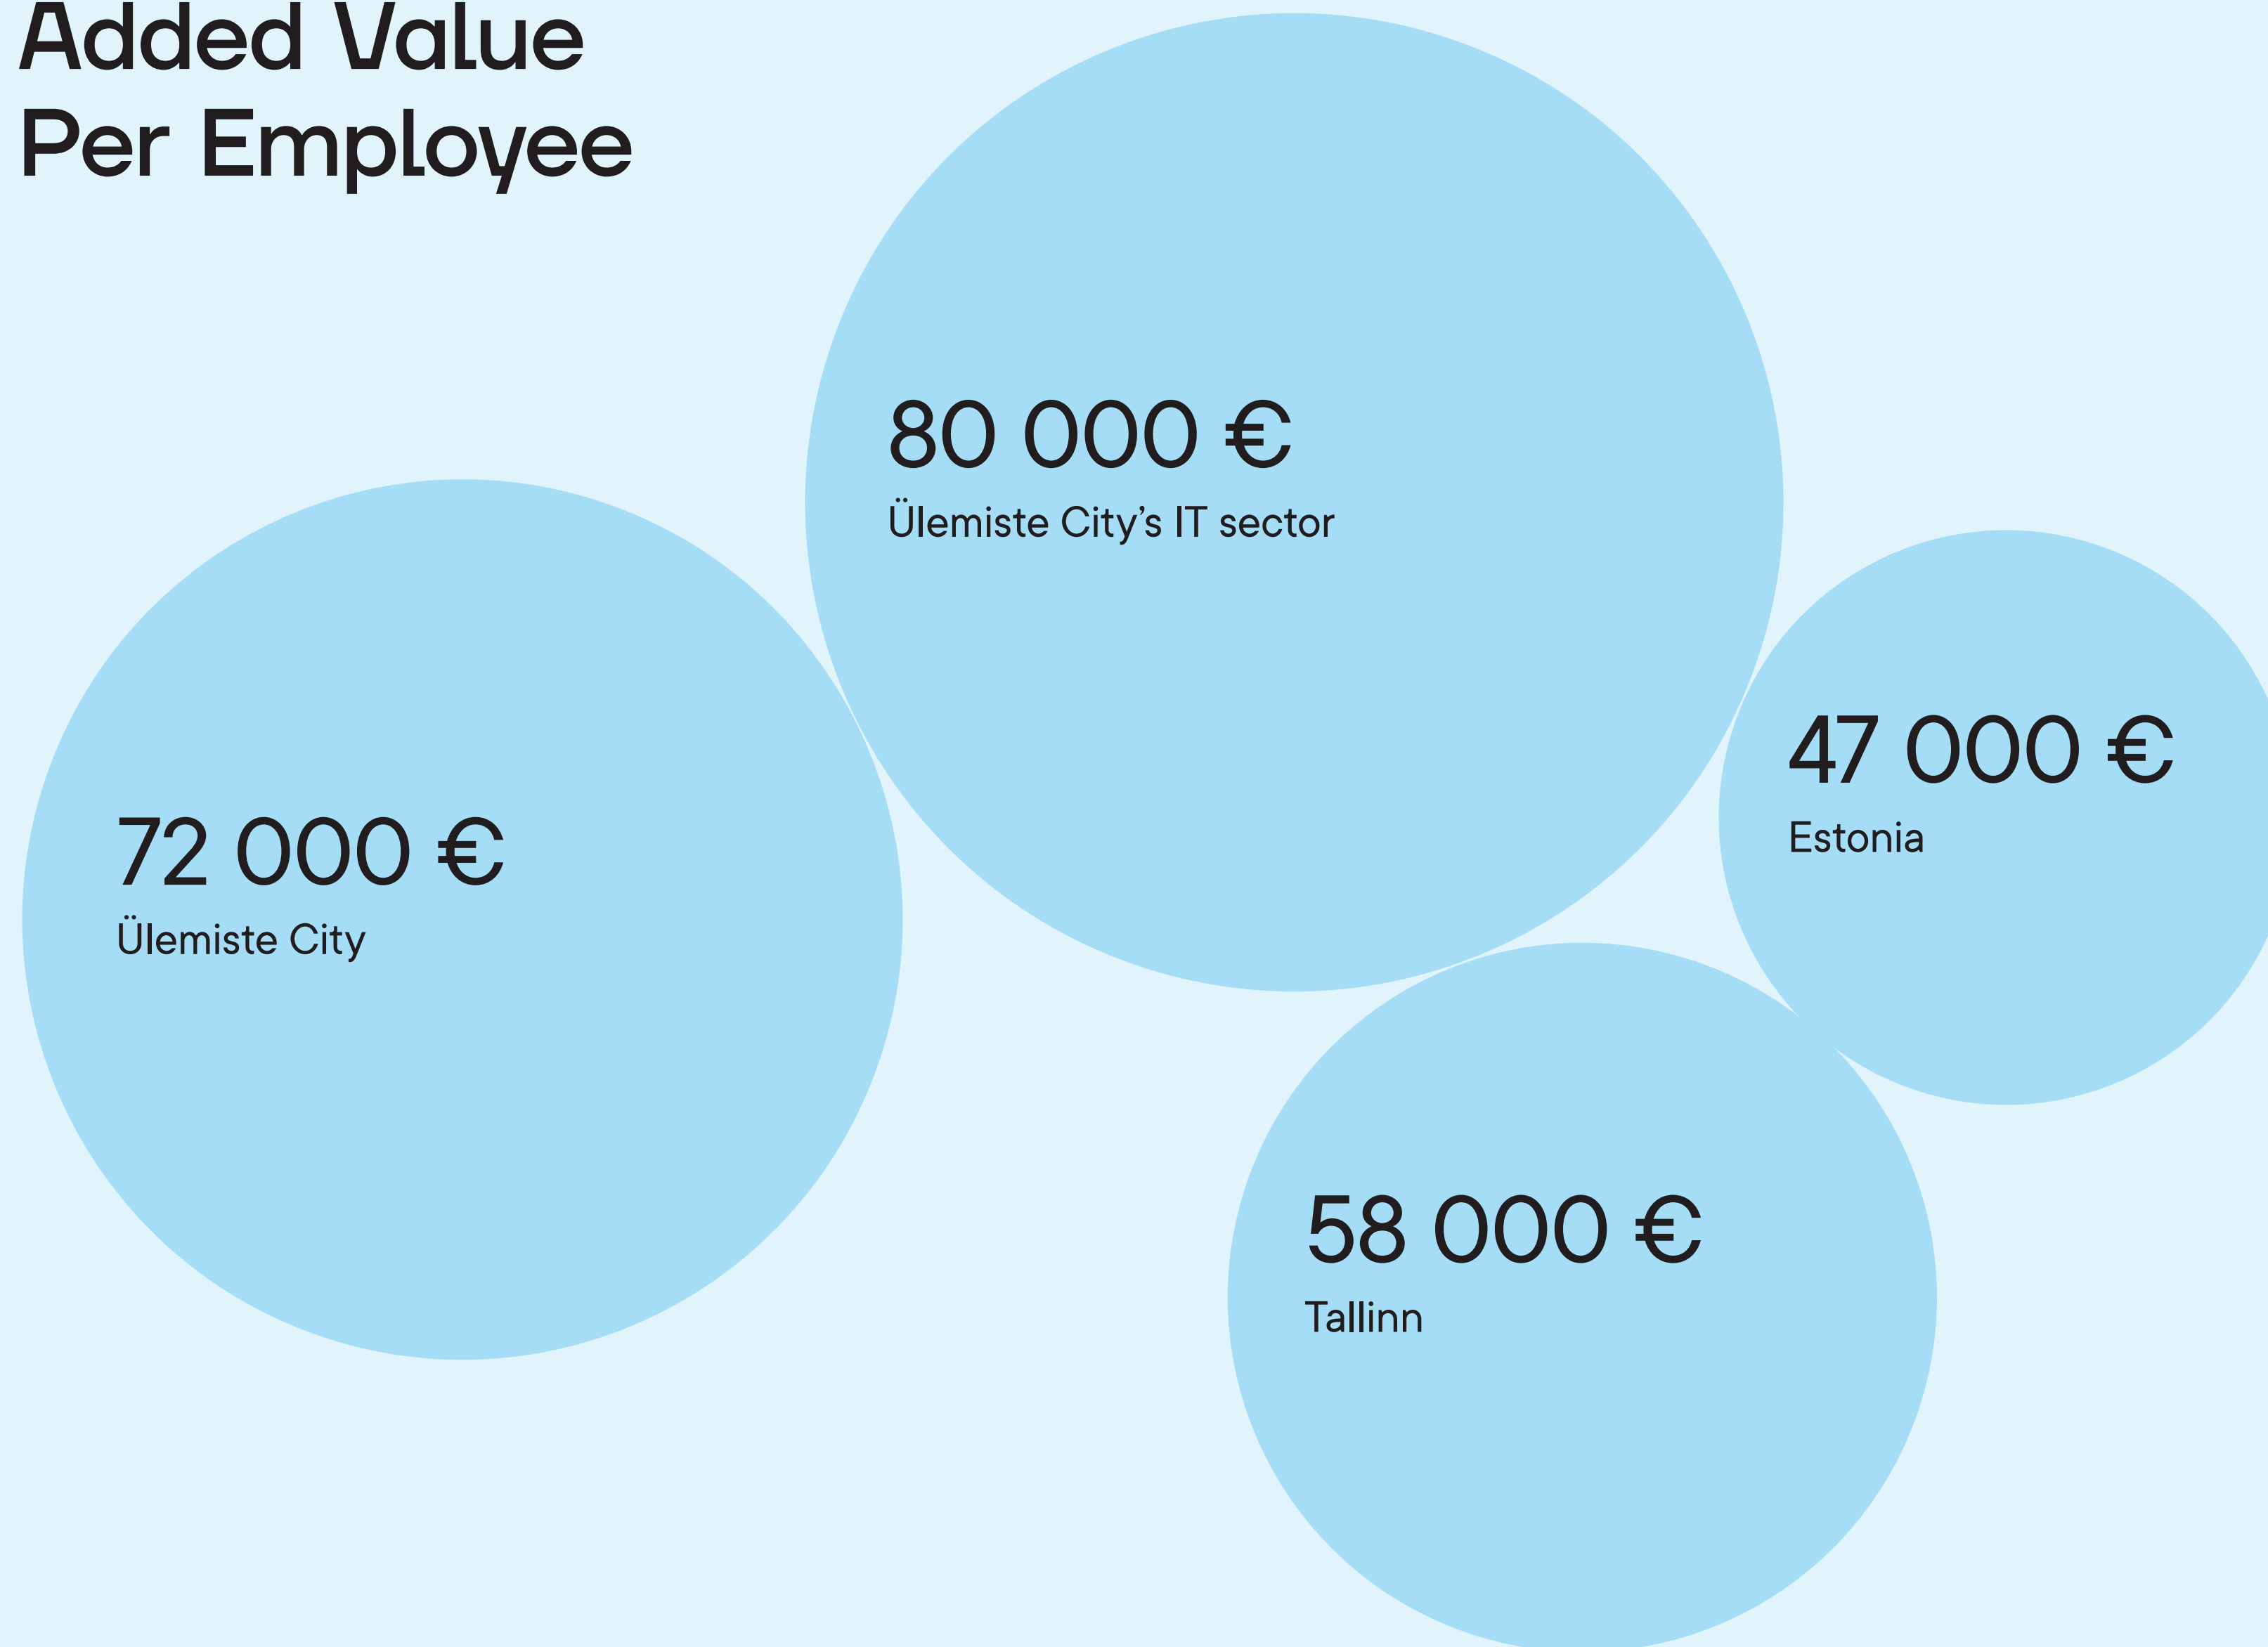

Third Economy in Estonia

Compared to the business sector labor taxes of all Estonian cities, Ülemiste City only pays less taxes than Tallinn (58%) and Tartu (6.5%) but more than Pärnu (2.4%).

Added Value Per Employee

80 000 €
Ülemiste City's IT sector

72 000 €
Ülemiste City

47 000 €
Estonia

58 000 €
Tallinn

Export Share in Sales Revenue

Ülemiste City 52%

Estonia 33%

Ülemiste City's IT sector 81%

Estonia's IT sector 59%

The percentage of
Ülemiste City's IT
sector in Estonian IT
sector

The percentage of Ülemiste City's IT
export in Estonian IT
sector

